Dear Salutation,

Thank you for showing your care and concern for our University of Massachusetts Boston community by making a contribution to our students and faculty. Your gift inspires hope and resilience during a time of unprecedented uncertainty in our world.

While the university is now employing fully online instruction we are also working hard to assist those who will face acute financial and familial challenges in Boston and beyond. Your gift will directly impact our most vulnerable students and faculty as we navigate the next few months.

Thanks to you, our community can remain committed to serving students and advancing knowledge while keeping one another safe.

Thank you for your generosity.

With gratitude,

Vanessa DiCarlo Carta
Director, Donor Engagement and Stewardship
